Delightful Finca just outside Casarabonela

This very pretty finca is located approximately only five to ten minutes drive from Casarabonela and yet feels a world away. It is located atop a small hillock, which gives it a commanding view of the surrounding countryside. The property comes with approximately 4,000 square meters of land and is approached via its own driveway through a pair of rustic gates. At the top of the drive is a very attractive 'courtyard' area with mature plants and built in barbeque. Inside the finca there is a spacious lounge and kitchen area. The property benefits from two large double bedrooms, which are both bright and airy. The bathroom is compact but includes a shower, w/c and sink. This is a very quaint finca, which is habitable as is but it could be made in to a real gem with a little TLC. Its location, views and land make it a real must see.
