Village House in Casarabonela

This recently reformed village house really does offer any potential buyer the opportunity to purchase a very comfortable, modern home. The property itself is situated on the first and second floor and is accessed via its own private entrance door from the street. Inside you will find a large lounge / dining room with French doors leading out on to a standing terrace. Just off the lounge is a spacious fitted kitchen, a modern bathroom. There are three double bedrooms in this house as well as a large basement room, which could be converted into a number of other uses. Lastly there are also two roof terraces in this property so outside space is plentiful.
