Grand Village House in Casarabonela

This stunning village house is located right in the very heart of the beautiful whitewashed village of Casarabonela. Its fantastic location allows easy access to all the local amenities that this traditional Spanish pueblo has to offer. The property can be accessed via two separate entrances. The main entrance however opens into the large lounge with feature fireplace at one end. This room is bright and airy and has the added benefit of a sun lounge which is located just off the main lounge. The kitchen and dining room are located on the ground floor, where there is also a utility room and W/C. The four bedrooms and two bathrooms are situated on the top two floors. All are good size doubles and two have access to a balcony and the master has its own terrace. This is a large village house which boasts lots of character and viewing is highly recommended.
