Apartment in Casarabonela

This attractive studio apartment is located close to the centre of the village of Casarabonela and so would make an excellent base from which to explore this beautiful village. The property is made up of a large open plan lounge / sleeping area along with a spacious galley style kitchen. There is also a fully fitted bathroom. In addition the property also comes with its own private parking space. The apartment itself is bright and airy and would be an ideal investment for anyone looking to get their foot on to the property ladder in one of southern Spain's most up and coming villages.
