Opportunity in El Burgo

This investment opportunity is located in the still unspoilt, picturesque village of El Burgo. The plot currently has stables on it but these could be converted to a number of uses and in fact the owner of the plot opposite has done just this. There is a picture of the house he has just built on the left. This is a great plot of land at a fantastic price and with the added benefit of water and electric at the site it makes this a great investment opportunity.
