Large Villa in El Burgo, Possible B&B

On entering the property is an enormous hallway, leading two three large rooms two of which have feature fireplaces, a large double bedroom, kitchen with a huge pantry, dining room and a bathroom. Stairs from the hallway lead to a huge landing with access to a good size balcony with views over the garden, four double bedrooms (one en-suite), Enormous kitchen / lounge / diner. From the hallway leads to the attic that spans the size of the property. There are two entrances to this beautiful property, from the back there is a large double door which would provide an ideal area for a small car parking area and the other is from the courtyard toward the back of this fabulous property. Also there is a very large outbuilding that could be converted to a number of other uses. This property is impressive, which could be converted into a rural hotel or just kept as a very large holiday or retirement home. A truly impressive house set in its own grounds, the opportunities with a property like this are endless
