Village House in Casarabonela

This charming village house is located within easy reach of all the local amenities that Casarabonela has to offer. As you enter the property you are greeted by an attractive dining area, which then leads through an archway to the lounge. The lounge has a feature fireplace and is large enough to accommodate a sofa and television etc. The kitchen is compact but adequate and has a gas hob and fridge freezer. Just off the kitchen is the bathroom, which comes with all the usual fixtures and fittings. Located on the first floor are two large bedrooms both of which are bright and airy. Just off the master bedroom is a potential en suite bathroom; the plumbing has been installed ready for a bathroom suite to be fitted. On the second floor is yet another bedroom and access out on to the roof terrace. The roof terrace is a real suntrap and has some great views out over Casarabonela. All furniture is also included in the sale.
