Village House in Yunquera

This impressive village house is located in the picturesque Spanish village of Yunquera. As you enter the property you are struck by the sheer size of this house. On the ground floor there is a bathroom, storeroom, kitchen and three additional rooms. On the first floor there are five bedrooms all of which are a very good size. The second floor provides two more attic rooms, which could also be converted. This is a large property and with a little TLC could be made into a very impressive village house.
