Village House in Yunquera

This impressive property is situated in the very scenic whitewashed village of Yunquera. The house is set in its own grounds which are planted with various tropical plants and give the whole place a feeling of being a little oasis. Inside there is a grand entrance hall, a large kitchen and four other rooms which could be used for a variety of purposes. On the first floor there are two large bedrooms as well a good sized terrace which overlooks the lush tropical garden below.
