Finca in Yunquera

Yunquera is in the heart of the Serranía de las Nieves, and borders with the eastern end of the Serranía de Ronda. The surrounding landscape is very beautiful, with an abundance of the rare pinsapo (Mediterranean pine) growing in the mountains.

This attractive finca is situated in 5,000 square meters of its own landscaped grounds and has a stream nearby. The house is approximately 30 square meters in size and comprises of a lounge with fireplace and kitchen area. There is also a basement, which could be converted into two further rooms and a bathroom. Town water and electricity are close by. It also has some great views of the surrounding countryside.

Summary

A two-room finca located on a beautiful plot of land, this has potential, and so viewing is highly recommended.
