Finca in Yunquera

This partly finished finca is located in the picturesque whitewashed village of Yunquera. The property itself is approximately 50 square meters in size and offers any potential buyer the opportunity to finish off the inside to their exact specification. The layout is very versatile and there is even the potential for a mezzanine floor to be fitted, which would give even more useable living space. Water is at the site and electricity is in the area. Access to the plot is also very good.
